2018 Annual Stockholders Meeting
FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS CAUTIONARY NOTE
(under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995)

This presentation contains forward-looking statements relating to earnings, operating margin, growth opportunities, acquisitions and divestitures, product sales, capital expenditures, stock repurchases, strategic plans and other matters.

Actual results could differ materially from these forward-looking statements.

Many factors could change the anticipated results, including without limitation:
- Disruptions in the global economy
- Changes in demand for products sold in any one of the markets in which Teledyne participates
- Funding, continuation and award of government programs
- Cuts to defense spending resulting from existing and future deficit reduction measures
- Risks associated with acquisitions
- Impacts due to political decisions and/or changes in the policies of the U.S. and foreign governments
- Threats to the security of our confidential and proprietary information
- Lower oil and natural gas prices and regulations or restrictions relating to energy exploration or production
- Exchange rate fluctuations

Viewers are encouraged to read Teledyne’s 2017 Annual Report on Form 10-K and other periodic reports, including earnings releases, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for a more complete description of the company, its businesses, its strategies and the various risks it faces.

Teledyne assumes no duty to update its forward-looking statements.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Teledyne reports its financial results in accordance with U.S. GAAP. However, management believes that, in order to more fully understand our short-term and long-term financial and operational trends, investors may wish to consider the impact of certain items resulting from our recent acquisition of e2v which have an infrequent or non-recurring impact on operations. Accordingly, we present non-GAAP financial measures as a supplement to the financial measures we present in accordance with GAAP. These non-GAAP financial measures provide management with additional means to understand and evaluate the operating results and trends in our ongoing business by adjusting for certain expenses and other items. Management believes these non-GAAP financial measures provide additional means of evaluating period-over-period operating performance. In addition, management understands that some investors and financial analysts find this information helpful in analyzing our financial and operational performance and comparing this performance to our peers and competitors. We use the term “adjusted earnings per share,” to refer to GAAP earnings per share excluding items related to the e2v business acquisition and integration such as expense related to inventory fair value step-up adjustment, transaction and integration expenses such as legal, financial and other advisory fees, stamp duty, purchase price hedge losses, bridge loan fees and severance. We also adjust for any tax impact related to the above items.

Management includes or excludes the effect of each of the items identified below in the applicable non-GAAP financial measure referenced above for the reasons set forth below with respect to that item:

- Acquisition and integration related expenses—in connection with our e2v acquisition, we incurred legal, financial, and other advisory fees, stamp duty, purchase price hedge losses, bridge loan fees and severance. We exclude these expenses from our non-GAAP measures because we believe they do not reflect the performance of our ongoing operations.

- On December 22, 2017, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act was enacted. The Tax Act significantly revised the U.S. corporate income tax by, among other things, lowering corporate income tax rates, implementing the territorial tax system and imposing a repatriation tax on deemed repatriated earnings of foreign subsidiaries. As a result of the Tax Act, Teledyne incurred estimated charges in the fourth quarter of 2017 primarily due to the repatriation tax and the remeasurement of U.S. deferred tax assets and liabilities.

The non-GAAP financial measures described above are not meant to be considered superior to, or a substitute for, our financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP. There are material limitations associated with non-GAAP financial measures because they exclude charges that have an effect on our reported results and, therefore, should not be relied upon as the sole financial measures by which to evaluate our financial results. Management compensates and believes that investors should compensate for these limitations by viewing the non-GAAP financial measures in conjunction with the GAAP financial measures. In addition, the non-GAAP financial measures included in this presentation may be different from, and therefore may not be comparable to, similar measures used by other companies.

The non-GAAP financial measures listed above is also used by our management to evaluate our operating performance, and benchmark our results against our historical performance and the performance of our peers.

The company defines free cash flow as cash provided by operating activities (a measure by GAAP) less capital expenditures for property, plant and equipment. Adjusted free cash flow eliminates the impact of pension contributions on a net of tax basis, and reflects utilization of restricted cash from the sale of a former operating facility which funded, in part, a facility purchase pursuant to a 1031 like-kind exchange. The company believes that this supplemental non-GAAP information is useful to assist management and the investment community in analyzing the company's ability to generate cash flow, including the impact of voluntary and required pension contributions. All cash pension contributions were voluntary.
